This delightful, bay-fronted house is returning to the sales market for the first time in a quarter of a century. The property has been significantly improved and extended by the current owner and boasts a number of charming features, including double-glazed sash windows, window shutters, fireplace, cornicing and the original staircase. The house further benefits from underfloor heating downstairs and a new roof (two years old).

Offering 1,784 square feet of living space, this end-of-terrace family home comprises four bedrooms, a stunning family bathroom, shower room, large reception, guest toilet and a modern kitchen / dining room leading to a mature, decked garden to the rear.

Thane Villas is conveniently located for access to the shops, restaurants, cafes and is less than ten minutes walk from Finsbury Park Station (Victoria Line and Piccadilly Line and overground line).
